

Anantara Vilamoura
Algarve Resort, Portugal

There has never been a better time to visit the famous Arnold Palmer-designed Dom Pedro Victoria Golf Course on Portugal's spectacular Algarve coast. The star attraction in the golf hotbed of Vilamoura, the Victoria course borders the just-renovated Anantara Vilamoura Algarve Resort (in background), where upgrades include new luxury suites and separate family and adult zones. The resort's 20 new Signature Suites come with Anantara's exclusive butler service, so there's nothing to worry about other than your golf score.
